

Who is the more embarrassed?

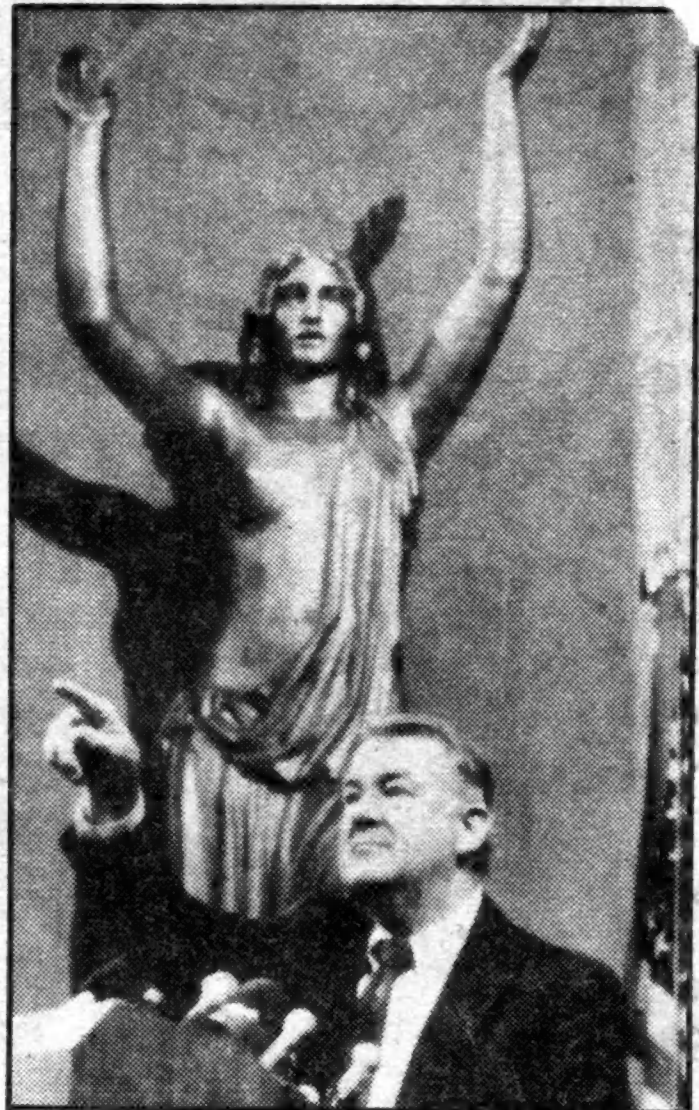

I AM appalled! How dare that bare-breasted hussy, the Spirit of Liberty, indeed, parade herself so shamelessly in the presence of Attorney General Ed "Mr. Ethics" Meese in his briefing on the Commission on Pornography's report? She is certain to incite violence and who knows what kinds of sexual perversion. Where will it stop?

I am curious, though. Which is the more embarrassed by the other's presence? The lady seems to have thrown up her hands in despair and disbelief. I know how she must feel.

The report against pornography, with its slightly pre-Inquisition thinking, has dismayed many who value their freedoms.

Perhaps we have nothing to fear; perhaps it is just a $500,000 misunderstanding; perhaps someone just needed a catalog of those hard-to-find items for his collection.

Whatever the case, whether you are pro-porn or anti-porn, the trend toward this type of report — one in which the results are determined beforehand and the facts

ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ed Meese and Spirit of Justice
... hands thrown up in despair?

are tailored to match — should be watched very closely.

Adolf Hitler started with just such "research" on the Jewish problem.

Harold K. Wilkes
ORLANDO